

Affirmation of Professional Calling

An interactive workshop serving as an introductory guide to writing an Affirmation of Professional Calling (APC).

An APC is an overarching individualized statement of intention. It describes the professional mission of a physician which in turn drives not just what they do, but how they do it. It is created through a reflective process that results in an understanding of fundamental motivations and values, identification of work that is most engaging, and recognition of personal strengths.

